Foreword

With the strain of the commencement march still ringing in our ears, we, the Seniors of 1951, leave Blackstone High School taking with us the precious memories of four long but brief years. Long, as we looked at them through the years of trembling young Freshmen, but short as we view them with those of worldly Seniors.

Here we spent many happy days pursuing our studies or as it was in some cases, being pursued by such horrible monsters as books and exams.

In the pages that follow, the members of the annual staff have tried to present a complete and real picture of school life as each of us remembers it. It is hoped that for each student it will recall many happy memories.

Dedication

Senior Class History

At the end of four perfect years, we the Seniors of '51 feel that we have accomplished a great purpose. With hesitating steps, we take leave of high school days, which hold for each of us many unforgettable memories--memories that we shall forever hold dear in our hearts.

Delighted, but scared, we proudly entered the high school routine of changing classes, club meetings and assemblies. Even though we were "the rats" of the year, nothing could discourage our determination to become dignified students in every respect.

But as sophomores we really showed our upper classmen just what we could do! The annual magazine campaign gave us an opportunity to show our ability in salesmanship. With the money we received as top salesmen, we were able to make a good start toward our Junior-Senior Banquet.

As Juniors, we strived to make our first annual homecoming a great success by contributing wholeheartedly to its activities. The year was highlighted by the Junior-Senior Banquet. After much consideration and discussion we chose our theme which was "The Top Hat Night Club." As a result of much planning and hard work we feel as though we provided one of the gayest and most outstanding events for the Seniors of '50.

With enthusiasm we entered our Senior year, determined to make it the most prominent of our high school years. We strived emphatically to make our annual play a success. On December 8, we proudly presented "January Thaw" a three-act comedy which brought many laughs to those who attended and was enjoyed wholeheartedly by the actors as well as the audience.

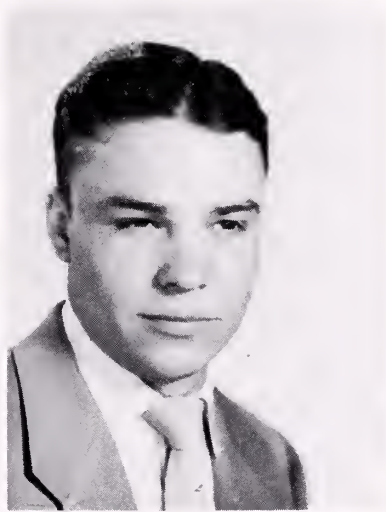

We feel proud of the sincere interest that each of us has exhibited in keeping up the high athletic standing of our school.

As we take leave of high school days we face the future with the determination to strive onward and upward toward the better things of life. We know that all we have learned in Blackstone High School will forever guide us and challenge us onward.

Back to work again! With the usual confusion in the hall, the pictures were taken and retaken. The ads were sold--even two to a customer in some cases. Of course, big-hearted us returning the extra money! Kay went literally mad collecting snaps, and selling ten-cent autographs. The Senior directory was typed, lost and retyped. Annuals were sold and ordered. Thus and so, the 1951 Ivy was bound and sent to the publishers to meet the Christmas deadline.

The staff was made up of five seniors and two juniors, under the editorship of Edward Powell. The members included the following: Kay Drogaris, Nancy Inge, Gladys Echols, Emily Irby, Jane Daniel, and Bill Longmire.

Putting out all the issues of the Ram's Horn was a hard job, but at the same time was also a lot of fun.

Poor Corky had such a hard time getting all the articles, which were written by the staff. They never were in on time, were they, Corky? It might have been a hurry, hurry, hurry to meet the deadline, but that last minute report was rushed down to the Courier Record Office on time.

The Ram's Horn could have never met its scheduled publication date without the willing and helpful assistance from Miss Hammock, our advisor.

Our wish is that the student body was pleased with our work to put out the school paper every month. If they were, we are certain that we have achieved our purpose of reporting faithfully news of interest of Blackstone High School to the students.

STUDENT COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION

The Student Cooperative Association Council, the most important organization in high school, consists of officers and representatives from each club, organization and homeroom. Mr. Parr is the association sponsor.

This year, the council voted to give the Juniors and Seniors, who got on the honor roll, an honor study hall. The honor roll consists of students having a B average. The council also sponsored the annual magazine campaign along with the Red Cross, T. B. and Polio Drives. The council also voted on having S. C. A. Council Pins for each member of the council. These pins will be turned in to the council at the end of the year.

The Council feels that the year of 1950-51 has been a very successful one.

Beta Club

The Wigglesworth Honor Society of Blackstone High School was established in the year 1939. This organization became a chapter of the National Honor Club, the Beta Club, in 1947, the purpose of which is: "To promote the ideals of honesty, and leadership among the high school students of America, to reward meritorious achievement, and to encourage and assist students to continue their education after high school graduation."

The purpose as set up in the original constitution of the local chapter is "to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in pupils of Blackstone High School."

With these objectives in mind, the Beta Club of Blackstone High School strives to hold its standards high.

This year the constitution was rewritten to include both national and local objectives. The club sponsored a chartered bus to Crewe for the Basketball game. The members worked hard to get out a creditable handbook for freshmen. Various members sent in contributions to the Beta Club Journal. Members of the club attended the Virginia-West Virginia Beta Club Convention held in Roanoke, Virginia March 30-31.

In the spring members were selected for combined qualities of leadership, citizenship, and scholastic achievement.

LIBRARY CLUB

This year under the direction of our sponsor, Mrs. Kendrick, the library club has been accomplishing various objectives. At the first meeting of the year the new constitution was read, and the library club members realized that this year they would have to make a C average on the sum total of all their classes. It was decided that continued membership in the club would depend upon whether or not a person showed interest in the club and helped in one of the three libraries in some way.

At the beginning of the year, the club paid for the bird prints which Mrs. Kendrick had selected and framed during the summer for the library. At the P. T. A. Hallowe'en Party, the club awarded a book to "Miss Boo", the person who had shown the most interest in library and reading this year. In cooperation with the Dramatic Club, the library club presented the book week play. "The Magic Book", which consisted of short attractive selections from "Little Women", "Huckleberry Finn", "Treasure Island", "The Princess and the Puma", and "Robin Hood". During the year the club started a scrapbook for the library club and any other B.H.S. news.

In the spring new members were selected on scholastic standing and service in the libraries.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Because of the varied subjects and classes for the Home Economic Students, the girls will be equipped with knowledge for better homes and better wives. They are busy learning to sew, to cook attractive and delicious meals, to help improve their looks and health by studying personal grooming, and many other things.

To add interest and fun to the club, the new members were initiated. These girls were not allowed to speak to any boy at any time for anything during the school day. There were amusing penalties for violations.

Each Home Economics class prepared a party for their group and exchanged presents at Christmas. The cottage was decorated beautifully with running cedar, mistletoe, holly and a Christmas tree.

The Home Economics Club promotes leadership, friendship and teamwork among the members, and encourages them to contribute more to the home and community.

Ever see the gals running through the halls with the traditional "B" displayed on their sweaters? Ever wonder what they had to do to earn that letter? Well, let me tell you all about the Monogram Club.

Baseball

The squad has been riddled by graduation and Coach Bob Gill has only four lettermen back. Dave Bennett is on hand to pick up line duties at first base and Milas Bennett will again hold down second. Jess Martin handles the catching while Harry Watson patrols the outfield. Aside from these veterans Coach Gill has to depend upon new comers, along with a few non-lettering handovers. With the inexperienced players coming through this year the team is developing into a fine squad.

The Girl's SoftBall Team

The prospects for the girls' softball team of 1951 looks very bright. There are five lettermen returning to the team this year. They are Laura Rogers, Mary Gibbs, Laura Tuck, Carolyn Crouch, and Jean Tompkins.

Last year the girls had a very successful season by winning all their league games. The teams in the league were as follows: Burkeville, Crewe, Amelia, Kenbridge, and Lawrenceville. Good sportsman like spirit on the softball diamond as well as a great deal of interest in this sport was shown by all the members on the team. We were very proud of our team last year because of this reason and it is certain that we'll be even prouder of them this year.

SENIORS PRESENT ANNUAL PLAY DEC. 8

Ann Jones Wins Beauty Title

Miss Ann Jones, a sophomore at B.H.S. was named State Grange Sweetheart at the annual Grange Convention held in Richmond, October 26, 27 and 28. Ann was representing the Iron Bridge Grange of Nottoway County. During the ball on Thursday night, Dr. Sanders, a National Grange officer, crowned her Queen. She won over eleven other contestants in judging at Miller and Rhodes during the afternoon. Beauty, poise, and contribution to the community life were considered in the judges' decisions.

At the Blackstone High School Home Coming Dance on Friday night, the Iron Bridge Grange presented Ann with a corsage of white roses.

Dramatic Club Sponsors Radio Show

B.H.S. Is On the Air Thursday, 7:15

This year, through the co-operation of WKLV, the Dramatic Club is producing a weekly radio show. Cats are chosen from members of the Club who are in the first group of the Dramatics Class. There have been four programs given during October: A Welcome to the New Students, Haroun Al Raschid, William Tell, and U.N. and U.S.

These programs are designed to give students practical experience in radio work and to let the public know something of the school and its work. All the details are handled by the class, from announcing, to sound effects. Talented students are given an opportunity to act, play or sing. Interest has been keen so far and there is much interest and competition for

B.H.S. Alphabet

A is for Ansell, who is lively and hep. And when hes dancing, he has plenty of pep.

B is for Bertha, who goes steady, when Ronald comes, she's always ready.

C is for Cabell. On the gridiron, he can really go, but with his books he's rather slow.

D is for David, who has acquired the bleached look. His mind is on girls and not on his books.

E is for Edward with his natural, curly blond hair. He doesn't have to give it the peroxide care.

F is for Frank, who thinks he's a brain. When he starts bragging, we all get a pain.

G is for Gill, our coach, who's full of fun. We're glad he finally got a car that would run.

H is for Harry, who's hard to beat. Still in school, he's always neat.

I is for Irby, Emily and Joe. When they are around, they make things go.

J is for Julie who is the life of the party. Her laugh is always loud and hearty.

K is for kisses, which each girl lacks. What they wouldn't do for a few snacks.

L is for Lil' Preach with his million-dollar smile; his jolly good humor will take him many a mile.

M is for Mary, Mary Scott, no less. Without her—things would be in a mess.

N is for Nancy, who as cheer lead-

Campus Quips

"I don't mind," said the professor, "if I see a student fidget toward the end of the hour. I don't mind seeing him look at his watch; but when he takes out his watch and stares at it, puts it to his ear, then shakes it—that gets me."

Rams Capture Four Straight

After losing their first game to Highland Springs, the fighting Rams of B.H.S. got back into the win column by defeating Chase City 47 to 0 in Chase City. After getting off to a slow start Blackstone began to roll and could not be stopped. Cabell Rives led the scoring with two touchdowns and five extra points.

B.H.S., 20; Appomattox, 6
On the following week, Blackstone met undefeated Appomattox H.S. here in Wigglesworth Stadium and emerged victors, the score being 20 to 6. The Ram's passing attack was a little too much for the visitors and proved their downfall. Cabell Rives again led the scoring with two touchdowns and two extra points. Fullback Harry Watson scored the other six points.

"January Thaw" Rated Highly

"January Thaw," the Senior play presented Friday evening in the high school auditorium, was acclaimed a most outstanding production. Each character was well portrayed, and the entire play was most enjoyed.

The cast was as follows:

Herbert Gage	Joe Irby
Marge Gage	Emily Irby
Barbara Gage	Jackie Brigos
Paula Gage	Nancy Inge
Sarah Gage	Kay Drogris
Frieda	Agnes Coburn
Joanathan Rockwood	Jess Martin
Mathilda Rockwood	Mary S. Scott
Matt Rockwood	Corky Kitchen
Mr. Loomis	Adolphus Lotts
Uncle Walter	Jackie Lucas
Carson	Dillard Rogers
George Husted	Edward Powell
Policeman	George Echols

The story deals with two families, the Gages and the Rockwoods and their fight for possession of an old house in Connecticut. The Gages with their daughters, Barbara, Paula, and Sarah, buy the house thinking its former owners, the Rockwoods, are dead. Everyone is taken by surprise when the Rockwoods, with their lazy son, Matt, return and make their home with the Gages. Amid much confusion a blizzard brings matters to a climax by forcing the families to become friends.

Credit not only should go to the cast but also to the set and prop committees and to Mrs. Jordan, the director, for their untiring efforts, which made this play a great success.

Glee Club To Present Christmas Concert

As we, the members of the annual staff, finally complete our work on the 1951 "Ivy" we realize with a sigh that another year at B. H. S. has been finished.

It is hoped that for each student this book will recall many happy hours spent with school mates and teachers.

It is certain what without the help of certain people we could not have made possible the publication of this book. We wish to express our sincere appreciation to the following:

Mr. Grubbs, our photographer, who did such a splendid job of photographing the school and students.

The Delmar Studios--for their fine job of printing "The Ivy".

Miss Jo Anne Barnes, our advisor, whose assistance and advice did much to make "The Ivy" a wonderful book.

The Student Body, the Faculty and the Administration for their interest and help throughout the year.
